

RECEIVE COPY OF BALLOT FOR APRIL PRIMARY

Democratic State Convention in Springfield to be held on May 10, Official Call.

The official copy of the ballot for the presidential primary on April 11 has been received by County Clerk Henry B. Hubbard from Lewis L. Emerson, secretary of state. The ballot will contain the names of candidates for president of the United States, for delegates to the national convention of the party, and for alternate delegates to the party, and for office of party committee-men.

The Democratic ballot will contain the names of George F. Johnson and Thomas E. Burner for delegates to national convention, no preference for presidential nomination being expressed by either. One candidate for alternate to the convention is on the ballot. He is Frank M. Hallam. He indicates no preference for president.

Democrats of Illinois will assemble in state convention in the hall of the house of representatives in Springfield May 10, to select delegates and alternate delegates to the national convention of the party in San Francisco. The official call has been received by Henry B. Hubbard, county clerk.

The convention will nominate candidates for trustees of the state university, and electors for president and vice president, and clerks of the appellate courts of the Second, Third and Fourth districts.

Representation in the convention is based upon the vote for Wilson in 1916, and one delegate is allotted for every thousand votes or major fraction thereof. The total number of delegates entitled to seats is 965.

Rock Island county is entitled to 11: Mercer, 3; Henderson, 2; Henry, 5; Whiteside, 4.

The Republican voters will be confronted with the following names on the ballot handed to them:

For president—Frank O. Lowden.

For delegate to national nominating convention—Everett C. Hardin, choice for president, Frank O. Lowden; Lowrie C. Blanding, choice for president, Frank O. Lowden.

For alternate delegate—James E. Dertinger, choice for president, Frank O. Lowden; Charles W. Cooper, choice for president, Frank O. Lowden.

Names of candidates for precinct committeemen will follow, this part of the ballot being different in each precinct.

ORION

Roy Lough has returned from a 10 days' trip in Missouri.

Vernie Richardson, who has been very ill, is recovering slowly.

Mrs. Jennie McGovern returned from Sterling Monday, where she has been for several weeks, on account of the serious illness of her sister, Mrs. Turner.

Mrs. H. H. Rhoadarmer was hostess to the members of the Stitches and Chatter club Tuesday afternoon at her home.

Mrs. F. S. Fullerton is about again after a siege with grippe.

Mrs. S. Hogren and family have reached Orion from Ryan, Iowa, and are occupying the home they purchased of Harry McLeese.

Walter Esenpreis of Waterloo, Iowa, visited at the Arthur Bothwell home last week.

Miss Daisy Kirkland was a recent guest at the G. H. Wayne home.

Miss Olga Edlen of Moline, music instructor in the Orion schools, entertained the members of the high school orchestra at a dinner at her home last week. A splendid time was had and a group picture was taken, to be used in the high school annual.

The W. H. M. S. of the Methodist church entertained the congregation at a supper and sociable Friday evening, in honor of the choir. A delicious three-course repast was served at 7 o'clock, about 125 being seated at beautifully appointed tables. Pink and white carnations, pink primroses, and ferns in lovely baskets formed the decorations. Later the guests repaired to the auditorium of the church, where a splendid program was given, followed by several fine and humorous toasts to the choir and church. Rev. D. S. McCowan of Knoxville, Ill., a former pastor, was an honored guest and acted as toastmaster. The ladies are to be congratulated on the success of the whole affair.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Wayne were in Kewanee, over-Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Tracy.

A. L. Westerlund was in Rockford last week, going as a delegate to the John Erickson Republican league of Illinois.

Rev. Harold Bellbrook of the Baptist church delivered his farewell sermon Sunday evening and with his family will depart Tuesday for Bay City, Mich., where he takes charge of the Broadway Baptist church. The best wishes of their many friends follow them to their new home.

BOWMAN STATES HE IS THROUGH AS A POLICEMAN

Patrolman Orie Bowman, who has been off duty since last week, appeared at the police headquarters yesterday and announced that he would not report for duty any more. He stated he needed a rest.

MILAN

Friends of Mrs. Charity Ann Walker surprised her Friday when they gathered at the home of her son William Walker to help her celebrate her 73rd birthday. The afternoon was spent with games and music after which a delicious lunch was served by the ladies. Mrs. Walker was presented with a purse of money.

Alvin Wilson moved his family from the McMeekin home on East Dixon street to Rock Island last Saturday.

John McConnell and son Frank of Black Hawk township, left Saturday for Sioux City, Iowa, to see Mr. McConnell's brother, Charles of Marcus, Iowa, who is critically ill in the hospital at Sioux City.

Jonas Bowman and daughter Mrs. W. H. Sullivan of New York city, spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Eric Bowman of Watertown, Ill.

Mrs. John Campbell entertained the Double Four card club at her home Tuesday evening. During the games light refreshments were served.

Miss Katherine Walker of Davenport, called on old Milan friends Friday.

Miss Margaret Yohe of Butte, Neb., is spending several days at the home of Mrs. Phil Wright.

Robert Connelly was called to Sheffield, Ill. Saturday night by the serious illness of his mother, Mrs. Mary Connelly.

Mrs. Sally Wright and son Leslie of Davenport were Sunday callers in Milan and Sears Station.

Over one hundred Eastern Star members and their families enjoyed the St. Patrick supper given in the lodge rooms last Friday night. The rooms were decorated with pipes, shamrocks and streamers, as were the tables. After the supper a fine program was enjoyed.

Miss Emma Dittmer is spending the week at the Major Waldmann home on the Rock Island arsenal.

Word was received by relatives from Mrs. William Little of Conway Springs, Kan., that she is much improved and able to sit up. Her many friends here hope for a speedy recovery.

Over forty dollars was realized from the box social given Saturday night at Doxey school by the teachers, Miss Ethel Lyons. A fine time was enjoyed by all but owing to the condition of the roads the crowd was smaller than expected. Six girl friends assisted Miss
